

Wikimedia events at SLWA

WikiClubWest is the Western Australian branch of Wikimedia Australia. It exists to further the aims of the Wikimedia movement, especially in relation to Western Australian topics or for Wikimedia contributors who live in this state.

Wikimedia Australia is the Australian chapter of the global Wikimedia movement, the driving force behind Wikipedia and eleven other free and open educational projects.

The WA branch of Wikimedia Australia is currently resident in BiblioTECH, the State Library of Western Australia's new incubation space for "cultivating creative ideas".

Venue: BiblioTECH, 1st floor,
State Library of Western Australia,
Francis Street, Perth.

July 22nd, Saturday, 1–3 p.m. Genealogy in Wikimedia (including Wiki-data).

July 26th, Wednesday, 5:30–7:30 p.m. Wikipedia, friend or foe?—Is Wikipedia a competitor for the sharing of knowledge, or a complementary partner to traditional methods?

July 29th, Saturday, 1–3 p.m. Creating maps with QGIS (in collaboration with Geogeeks).

August 2nd, Wednesday, 5:30–7:30 p.m. Wikipedia and Western Australia—what fits? Does Western Australia fit in an online encyclopedia, or does Wikipedia fit into Western Australia?

www.wikiclubwest.org.au

Wikimedia events at SLWA

WikiClubWest is the Western Australian branch of Wikimedia Australia. It exists to further the aims of the Wikimedia movement, especially in relation to Western Australian topics or for Wikimedia contributors who live in this state.

Wikimedia Australia is the Australian chapter of the global Wikimedia movement, the driving force behind Wikipedia and eleven other free and open educational projects.

The WA branch of Wikimedia Australia is currently resident in BiblioTECH, the State Library of Western Australia's new incubation space for "cultivating creative ideas".

Venue: BiblioTECH, 1st floor,
State Library of Western Australia,
Francis Street, Perth.

July 22nd, Saturday, 1–3 p.m. Genealogy in Wikimedia (including Wiki-data).

July 26th, Wednesday, 5:30–7:30 p.m. Wikipedia, friend or foe?—Is Wikipedia a competitor for the sharing of knowledge, or a complementary partner to traditional methods?

July 29th, Saturday, 1–3 p.m. Creating maps with QGIS (in collaboration with Geogeeks).

August 2nd, Wednesday, 5:30–7:30 p.m. Wikipedia and Western Australia—what fits? Does Western Australia fit in an online encyclopedia, or does Wikipedia fit into Western Australia?

www.wikiclubwest.org.au